K CAPITAL COMMENTS ON OFFICEMAX ANNOUNCEMENT

Boston, MA – April 11, 2005 – K Capital Offshore Master Fund (U.S. Dollar), L.P. and Special K Capital Offshore Master Fund (U.S. Dollar), L.P. (collectively, “K Capital”), who, together with its affiliates is the third largest shareholder of OfficeMax Incorporated (NYSE: OMX), today commented on the announcement by OfficeMax that it intends to oppose K Capital’s nomination of Karl L. Meyer for election to the OfficeMax Board of Directors:

We are disappointed that OfficeMax views the addition of a new, highly qualified and independent business leader to its Board as a distraction. Furthermore, we are puzzled that the Company believes that allocating valuable corporate resources to oppose a shareholder-backed director nominee is in the best interests of all OfficeMax shareholders.

As the third largest shareholder of OfficeMax, we continue to be concerned with the poor track record of the current Board and management team, led by George Harad. Given the significant performance issues the Company continues to face, we are convinced that all shareholders will benefit from a fresh perspective on the Board.

As we have made clear on numerous occasions, we would welcome the opportunity to meet with the Board to share our views regarding the strategic direction of the Company.

K Capital announced on April 8, 2005 that it had provided notice to OfficeMax of its nomination of Mr. Meyer for election to the OfficeMax Board at the Company's 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders on May 9, 2005. K Capital holds 5,795,800 shares of OfficeMax common stock, or approximately 6.2% of the Company's outstanding shares.

The Blackstone Group, L.P. and Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP are serving as K Capital's financial and legal advisors, respectively.
